Dear Sir or Madam:

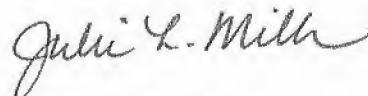

I am very pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Ms. Amie Comeau. I have been a client of Ms. Comeau's since 2009, when I began taking yoga classes at Moon Tree Yoga in Spokane, WA. Ms. Comeau was a yoga instructor at Moon Tree Yoga, and from our first class together I was very impressed with her.

As an administrator who works in higher education, I have nearly twenty years of experience hiring, supervising, and evaluating employees. Ms. Comeau has qualities I seek in employees and colleagues. She is intelligent and knowledgeable, having both formal education and diverse work experiences—from yoga teacher to Web author—that will serve her well in almost any employment setting. She is attentive, able to perceive the unarticulated needs of her clients and to adapt to them. In one of our classes, for example, her clients ranged from a twenty-something mother with child in tow to an elderly man recovering from back surgery, with all levels of expertise and abilities in between. Ms. Comeau adapted her plan for the session to insure that all participants benefited physically and mentally from the yoga practice. Her success as a teacher is informed by her communication skills: she listens well, communicates clearly, and has a great sense of humor.

Finally, Amie Comeau is an excellent candidate for your position because she has a very strong work ethic. Amie challenges herself to reflect on her own performance and to learn new approaches. As a result, in the short time she has been in Spokane, Amie has developed a loyal clientele in a field that is physically, emotionally, and mentally challenging.

I have recently relocated from Spokane to Indianapolis, and working with Amie Comeau is one of the things I miss about life in the northwest. Please contact me at (509) 590-3953 or at jmiller6816@gmail.com if I can provide more information.

Sincerely,
